THREE FREEDOMS ONE PERFECT VACATION

THE FREEDOM to HAVE FUN

Located just a short two-hour drive from Washington, in Virginia's coastal region, Williamsburg gives you the freedom to have fun at Busch Gardens, the world's most beautiful theme park, or make a splash at Water Country USA. Become a Revolutionary spy in Colonial Williamsburg and then head outdoors to bike, hike, Segway and zip line your way to adventure.

THE FREEDOM to SATISFY your CURIOSITY

Want the freedom to satisfy your curiosity? Visit one of our world-class living history museums. Visit one of the plantations to see what early life was like along the James River or join an archaeological dig in Historic Jamestowne. And don't forget a trip to America's second-oldest college, the College of William & Mary.

THE FREEDOM to RELAX

Of course, you also have the freedom to relax in Williamsburg, as you explore thousands of acres of beautiful woodlands and wetlands or kayak in Chickahominy Riverfront Park, York River State Park and Little Creek Reservoir. Enjoy an amazing array of culinary choices, beautiful spas, challenging golf and a trip to The Williamsburg Winery, one of the top wineries in the country.

Whether your plans call for a weekend getaway or a week-long escape, you'll find more vacation freedom than any destination in the U.S., right here in Williamsburg. Come find your freedom today!

Visit VisitWilliamsburg.com or call (800)368.6511. For assistance with lodging reservations, please call (888)831.7418. Visit our Facebook page at facebook.com/VisitWilliamsburg.

What makes Greater Williamsburg the perfect vacation destination? In a word: FREEDOM.

TWO REAL FAMILIES

EXPERIENCE THE ULTIMATE VACATION FREEDOM

Can a WILLIAMSBURG vacation really give you the FREEDOM to have fun, relax and satisfy your curiosity?

Two real families, the SETTLES and the FAYS, put our vacation freedom to the ultimate test.

THE Settle FAMILY

When it comes to vacations, the Settle family isn't exactly on the same page. Mom and Dad want a fun vacation that's educational too. The kids – Steve, Spencer and Sloane – want a fun vacation ... period. Luckily, Williamsburg had enough interactive activities to keep everyone happy.

ATTRACTIONS

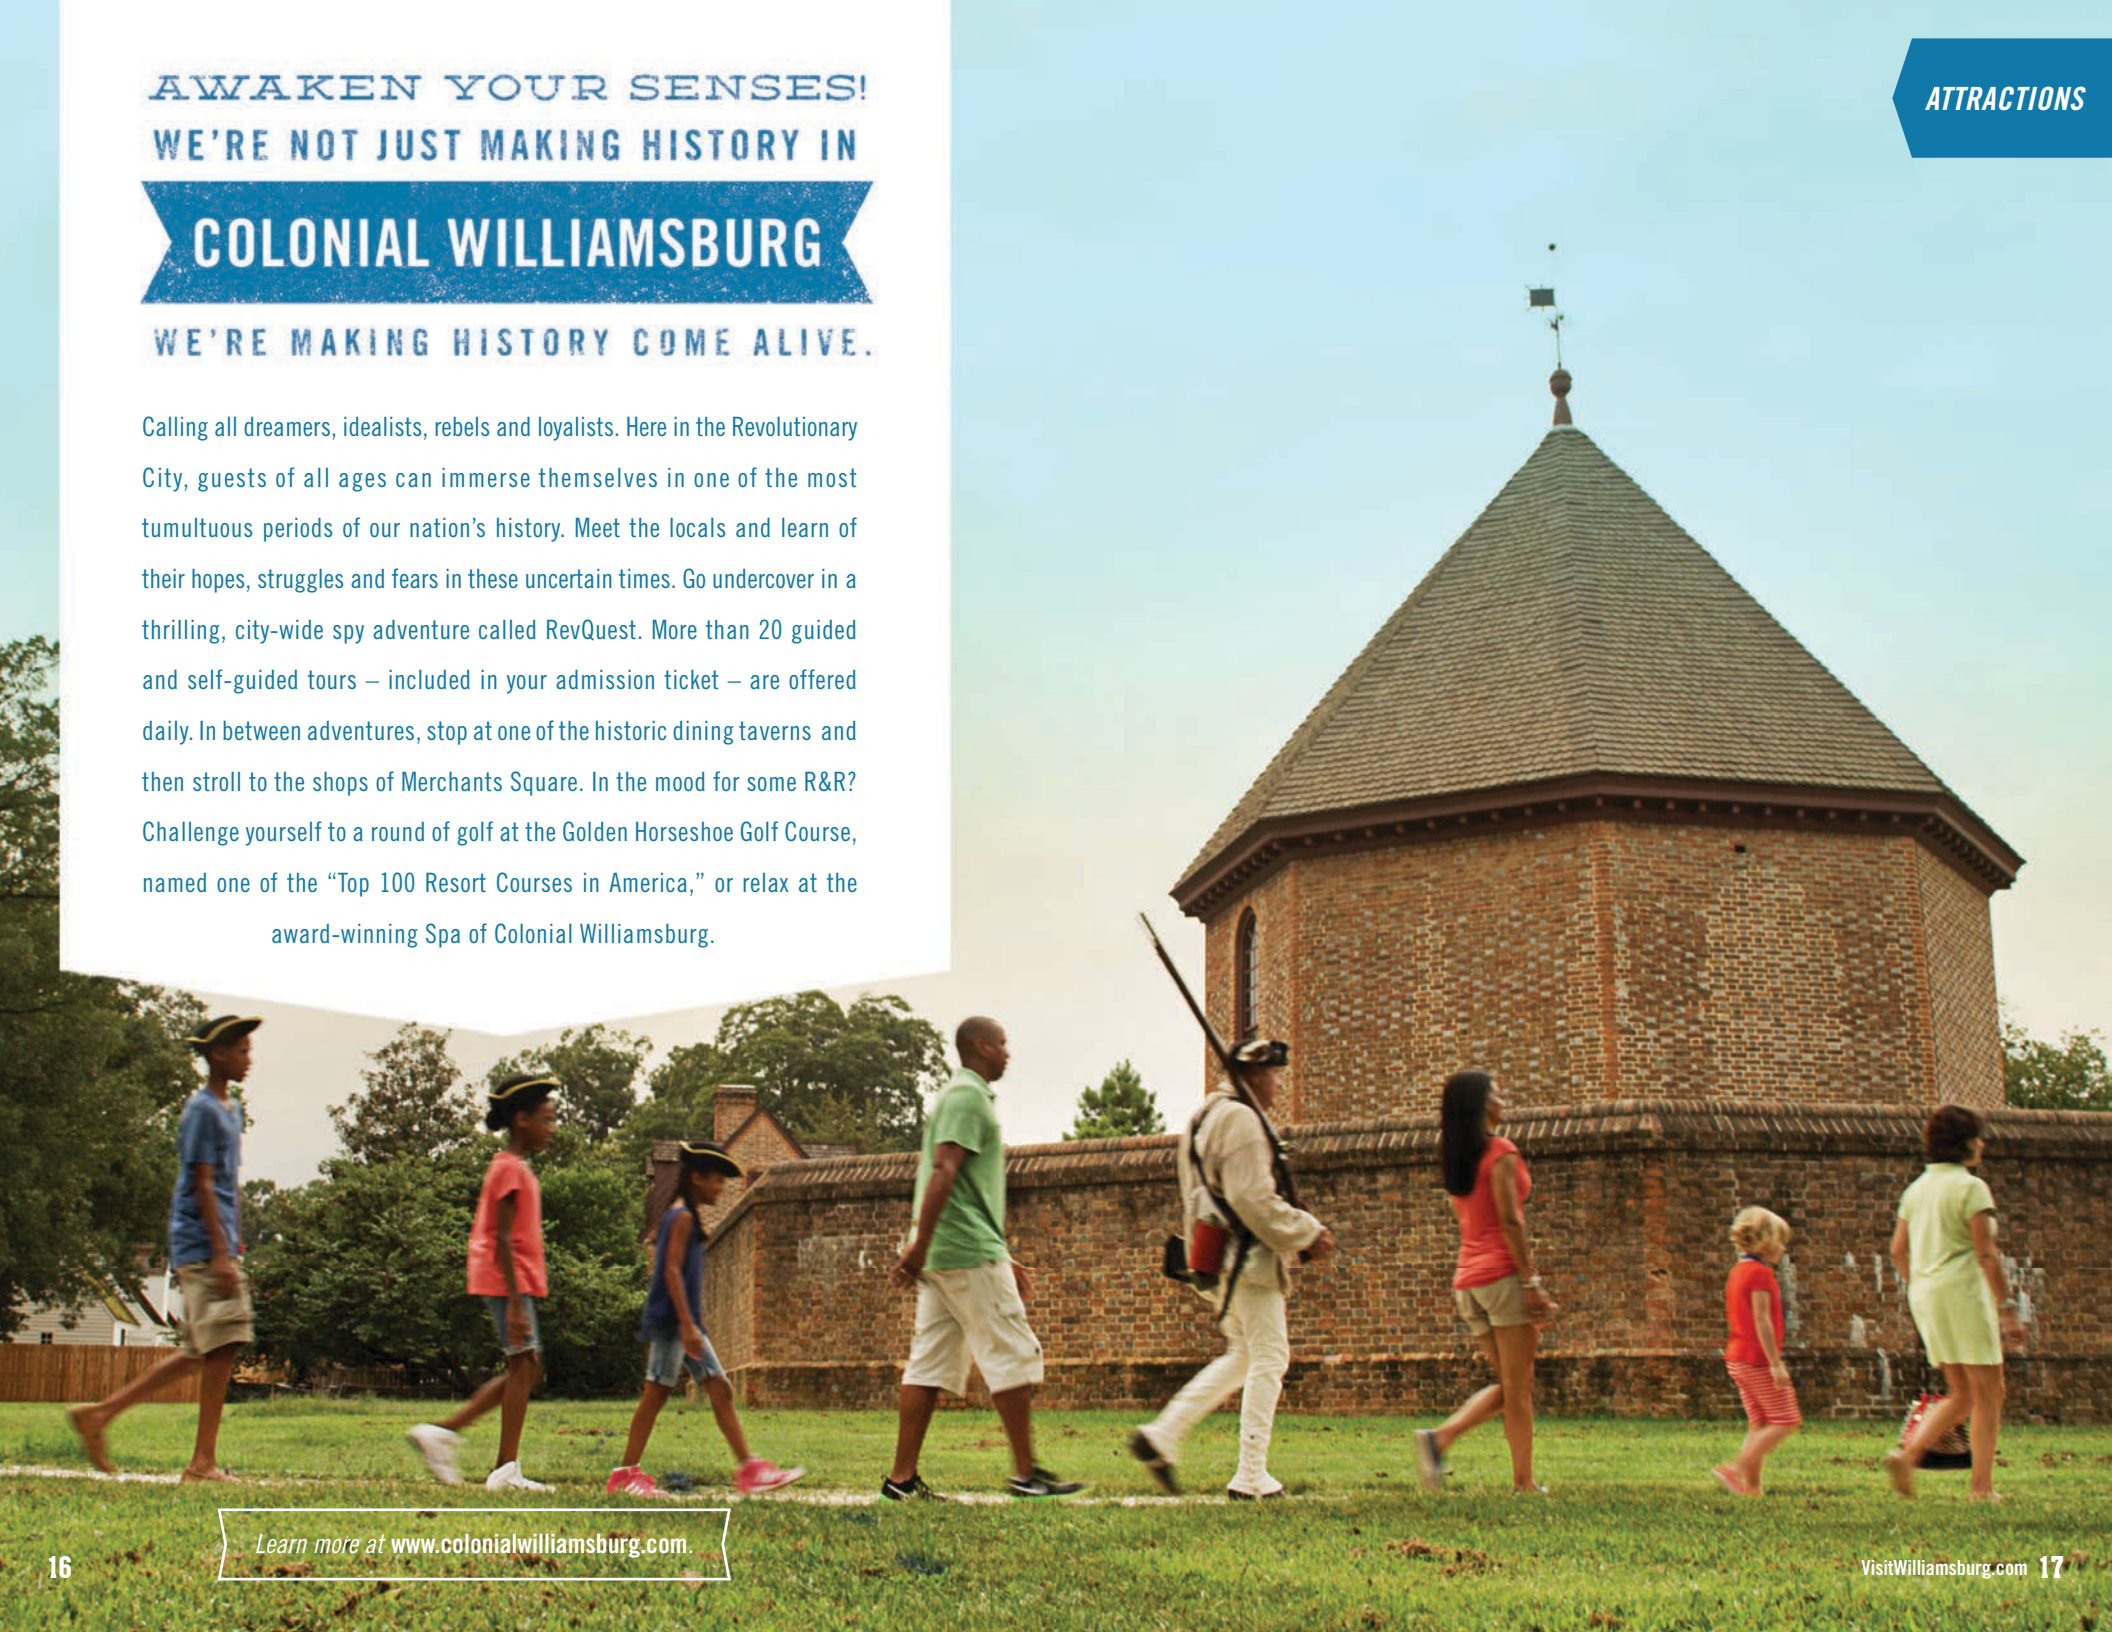

AWAKEN YOUR SENSES!
WE'RE NOT JUST MAKING HISTORY IN

COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG

WE'RE MAKING HISTORY COME ALIVE.

Calling all dreamers, idealists, rebels and loyalists. Here in the Revolutionary City, guests of all ages can immerse themselves in one of the most tumultuous periods of our nation's history. Meet the locals and learn of their hopes, struggles and fears in these uncertain times. Go undercover in a thrilling, city-wide spy adventure called RevQuest. More than 20 guided and self-guided tours – included in your admission ticket – are offered daily. In between adventures, stop at one of the historic dining taverns and then stroll to the shops of Merchants Square. In the mood for some R&R? Challenge yourself to a round of golf at the Golden Horseshoe Golf Course, named one of the “Top 100 Resort Courses in America,” or relax at the award-winning Spa of Colonial Williamsburg.

Learn more at www.colonialwilliamsburg.com.

DIG DEEPER INTO OUR NATION'S PAST THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL DIGS OF

HISTORIC JAMESTOWNE

GIVE A FASCINATING GLIMPSE AT LIFE ...
AND DEATH ... IN VIRGINIA'S FIRST CAPITAL.

Meet Jane. At least that's what the archaeologists call her. Her partial remains discovered in a 17th-century trash deposit from "the starving time" of 1609-10 confirm the first scientifically proven occurrence of survival cannibalism in Colonial America. Jane's story is just one of the many remarkable tales of life in the first permanent English colony in North America. You can also walk in the footsteps of Capt. John Smith and Pocahontas, or explore the original site of James Fort as Preservation Virginia archaeologists uncover the settlement's remains. Start your journey at the Historic Jamestowne Visitor Center to learn about Jamestown's 92-year run as the capital of Virginia. At the Voorhees Archaearium, Jamestown's archaeology museum, see artifacts excavated from James Fort and then join an archaeology walking tour to see the 17th-century brick church tower and archaeological remains of 1620s New Towne. After lunch at the café overlooking the James River, where you may glimpse eagles, herons and white-tailed deer, drive the five-mile Island Drive. Don't miss a stop at the Glasshouse of 1608 to observe artisans demonstrating glassmaking.

Visit www.historicjamestowne.org for more information.

IT TAKES A VILLAGE

VISIT A RECREATED INDIAN VILLAGE AND LEARN ABOUT EARLY SETTLERS IN

JAMESTOWN SETTLEMENT

Ever wondered what Pocahontas's childhood was really like? Here's your chance to tour a re-created Powhatan Indian village and take part in activities Pocahontas herself would have helped with as a child, like grinding corn and making cordage. You can also learn how the story of the Powhatan Indians converges with that of the English colonists in 1607: A Nation Takes Root, a docudrama film that chronicles Jamestown's origins in England and the colonists' struggle to survive and thrive in Virginia. At the museum pier, board the Susan Constant, Godspeed or Discovery, replicas of the three ships that transported the original Jamestown colonists to Virginia in 1607. Tour a re-created version of James Fort to experience its military and commercial character. There are gift shops and a café on museum premises, and special events and programs are offered throughout the year. Combination tickets are available year-round with the Yorktown Victory Center, a museum of the American Revolution.

Visit www.historyisfun.org for more information.

JUST ADD WATER!

SUMMER'S SPLASHIEST THRILLS ARE AT

WATER COUNTRY USA®

Ready for a high-adrenaline, family-friendly, action-packed adventure? Then head to Virginia's largest water park, Water Country USA®. Just three miles west of Busch Gardens, Water Country USA has state-of-the-art water rides and resort-style amenities. Take an epic journey on the park's newest thrill ride – Colossal Curl™, where you'll swish and swirl through a funnel before hurtling high above the park through enclosed colorful tubes. Need to catch your breath after those thrills? Soak up the sights while cruising along Hubba Hubba Highway®, a free-floating river ride through drenching coconuts, soft sprays and cool geysers. Cool off in Surfer's Bay wave pool or explore the water playground with your kids at H2O UFO®.

Planning a vacation to Water Country USA has never been easier.

Vacation packages include tickets, accommodations and complimentary in-park dining options. Learn more at

ATTRACTIONS

A BLEND OF OLD AND NEW

HISTORIC YORKTOWN

PUTS A THOROUGHLY MODERN SPIN ON HISTORY.

Breathtaking riverfront setting? Check! Equal measures of history and charm? Check. Segway tours of historic Main Street? Now you're talking! With its museums, shopping, outdoor recreation, fine dining and special events, Historic Yorktown is one of the true jewels of the Historic Triangle. On the waterfront, visit the Watermen's Museum and learn about the men and women who settled the Chesapeake Bay area. Then head to one of several fine antique shops, art galleries and charming restaurants all nestled in the village and overlooking the York River. Your kids will love a sunset sail on the York River aboard the Schooner Alliance or a fun-filled pirate sail aboard the Schooner Serenity. Rent a bicycle, paddle board or kayak for a self-guided tour of the town. Stroll along the scenic riverwalk, relax on the beach or attend Market Days.

Learn more at www.visityorktown.org.

LET FREEDOM RING

YORKTOWN BATTLEFIELDSYMBOLIZES A DECISIVE ENDING AND A TRIUMPHANT BEGINNING.

The British surrendered; independence was won. Yorktown Battlefield is the site of the final major clash of the American Revolutionary War. In the Yorktown Battlefield Visitor Center, walk the quarterdeck of a full-sized replica of a British warship and examine a collection of artifacts from the battle, including flags and weapons surrendered by the British at the end of the siege. Be sure to experience the state-of-the-art exhibit that lets you actually enter the walls of General Washington's tent, where he planned one of the most momentous events in our nation's history. Walking tours of the battlefield and the historic town are offered daily. A seven-mile, self-guided driving tour winds through the cannons, fortifications and markers of the battlefield for a chronological tour of the siege. At Surrender Field, stand on the very site where the British troops laid down their arms on October 19, 1781, and effectively ended the American Revolutionary War.

Visit www.nps.gov/colo for more information.

THE FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

YORKTOWN VICTORY CENTER

SHOWCASES LIFE DURING AND AFTER THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR.

Immerse yourself in the excitement and struggle of our nation's beginnings at the Yorktown Victory Center, a museum of the American Revolution. In an outdoor re-created Continental Army encampment, historical interpreters may invite you to help prepare a cannon for firing or join a military drill. And speaking of drills, ever imagined what a trip to the dentist would be like during this time? You'll never skip flossing again. A re-created 1780s farm provides a look at how many Americans lived in the early years of the new nation. Inside Yorktown Victory Center, the Declaration of Independence Gallery highlights how this revolutionary document inspired decisive action and attracted international attention. The Yorktown Victory Center continues to welcome visitors as it undergoes a transformation over the next few years into the American Revolution Museum at Yorktown. Combination tickets are available year-round with Jamestown Settlement, a museum of 17th-century Virginia. There is a gift shop on museum premises, and special events and programs are offered throughout the year.

Visit www.historyisfun.org for more information.

GO OLD SCHOOL

STROLL THE BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS OF AMERICA'S SECOND OLDEST COLLEGE, THE COLLEGE OF

WILLIAM & MARY

Chartered on February 8, 1693, by King William III and Queen Mary II, the College of William & Mary's sprawling campus encompasses 1,200 acres, including picturesque Lake Matoaka, Crim Dell and College Woods. Adjacent to the Historic Area of Colonial Williamsburg, the three buildings of the college's Colonial campus have been restored to all their 18th-century glory. Start your visit at the reception desk in the Sir Christopher Wren Building, the oldest college building in the United States. This magnificent structure was built between 1695 and 1699, before the city of Williamsburg was founded. The staff at the Wren can direct you to the must-see sites on campus, including the President's House, which has been used by every president of the college since 1732. Next, swing by the Muscarelle Museum of Art to view its collection of 4,000 works of art and visiting exhibits.

KISKIACK GOLF CLUB

8104 Club Drive | Williamsburg, VA 23188 | (757)566.2200 | www.kiskiackgc.com

Set along the ridge of a natural bluff, Kiskiack offers a challenge for players of all levels. Many of the picturesque holes demand accurate shot making from tee to green, while others are more forgiving – with ample landing areas and gentle sloping greens. The front nine let you relax as the course winds through mature hardwoods and over natural, rolling hills before a challenging uphill finish along one of the two lakes.

STONEHOUSE GOLF CLUB

9700 Mill Pond Run | Toano, VA 23168 | (757)566.1138 | www.traditionalclubs.com

Stonehouse winds through 6,962 yards of steep forested hills, wide plateaus and abrupt ravines, offering a truly exhilarating experience. If the dramatic elevations don't take your breath away, the greens at cliff's edge will. Enjoy the peaceful atmosphere while long carries, deep bunkers and hidden greens test you on every hole. Stonehouse also abounds in mystery and intrigue. Stories suggest Capt. John Smith and his men created Stonehouse as a fort, and Virginia's hero Nathaniel Bacon used it as a hideout while fighting the despised governor's forces. Stonehouse may even have been the place where Blackbeard, one of the most ruthless pirates of them all, buried his treasures. Now Stonehouse has its own treasure. Every hole is worthy of legendary status and after you've played it, you'll have your own stories to tell.

RAINY DAY ACTIVITIES

You can have fun in Williamsburg rain or shine. Check out these activities for days when the sun goes MIA.

BUSCH GARDENS, WILLIAMSBURG

True, most rides and activities are outdoors – however, if by chance you do get some rain on your day trip to the park, don't worry! Use this time to see one of the many main stage shows. Grab a bite to eat AND see a show at Das Festhaus.

COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG MUSEUMS

It's a great outdoor museum, but come rain, be sure to visit the indoor museums at Colonial Williamsburg – Basset Hall, the Williamsburg home of John D. Rockefeller Jr.; the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Folk Art Museum; and the DeWitt Wallace Decorative Arts Museum.

JAMESTOWN SETTLEMENT

Jamestown Settlement is famous for its remarkable outdoor exhibits, including its re-created Powhatan Indian Village and ship replicas – but should you encounter a little bad weather, you must check out the impressive indoor museum. This addition to the settlement is quite remarkable and explores the three cultures that converged at Jamestown – the Powhatan Indians, the English settlers and the Africans.

RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT! MUSEUM & 4-D THEATER

The perfect rainy day activity! This museum keeps any visitor entertained and fascinated with its 11 outrageous galleries! Oddball exhibits include dinosaur eggs, a shrunken head and so much more.

THE VIRGINIA LIVING MUSEUM

When it's raining, take the time to visit with the animals of the region. With so many different exhibits, you'll think you're outside on a mountain, inside a forest or lurking in a swamp! It's great rainy day fun without feeling like you're indoors!

YANKEE CANDLE

Set in the backdrop of a quaint small town, this amazing collection of stores is all indoors! In addition to the vast selection of candles, Yankee Candle is the perfect place to find gourmet foods, gift items and Christmas collectibles!

YORKTOWN VICTORY CENTER

If you hit a patch of rain, take this time to head indoors to explore the Yorktown Victory Center's amazing galleries – including a Declaration of Independence Gallery, Witness to Revolution Gallery and Converging at Yorktown Gallery. Also check out A Time for Revolution, a film centered around an encampment during the night of the Siege at Yorktown.

SOME OTHER IDEAS FOR RAINY DAYS

Museums, art galleries, Williamsburg Indoor Sports Complex, Movie Tavern, Williamsburg Players, The Comedy Club of Williamsburg, Bounce House, AMF Bowling, Paint on Pottery, Auntie M's American Cottage, Jamestown Glasshouse, Kimball Theatre, Williamsburg School of Needlework, Williamsburg Pottery, New Town, Premium Outlets, Merchants Square, Riverwalk Landing

AFTER DARK

The Historic Triangle is not just a daytime destination. There's plenty to do in the evenings! Check out these great attractions and shopping opportunities for some great evening fun.

AFTER DARK

BUSCH GARDENS WILLIAMSBURG

The park is spectacular at night. Be sure to take a look at the park's calendar for the latest information on evening concerts, events and even fireworks!

COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG

GO-KARTS PLUS

Celebrating over 20 years of fun! There are plenty of evening activities at Williamsburg's premier family entertainment center. Open mid-March through October. Call for hours.

MERCHANTS SQUARE

Located in the heart of Colonial Williamsburg. Features various shops with items including gourmet foods, jewelry, clothing, collectibles, toys, wine and more.

NEW TOWN

Shops, restaurants, a movie theater and more! Open year-round, seven days a week. Operating hours for individual businesses vary.

PIRATE'S COVE ADVENTURE GOLF

During the summer, we're open from 10 a.m. – 11 p.m.! Call for spring and fall hours.

RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT! MUSEUM & 4-D THEATER

Enter the twisted world of amazing oddities at Ripley's!

RIVERWALK LANDING

Set along the York River in Historic Yorktown. A relaxing shopping experience with a quaint village setting.

SCHOONER ALLIANCE

Head to Yorktown and take a sunset cruise along the York River on the Tall Ship, the Schooner Alliance.

THE VIRGINIA LIVING MUSEUM

The VLM offers "After Hours Tours" and exclusive "Group Only" shows at the Planetarium Theater. Also, on the second Saturday of each month, be sure to check out their Star Parties and Laser Light shows!

WATER COUNTRY USA

There's no better way to cool down in the evening than at Water Country USA .

YANKEE CANDLE

More than just a candle store – a sensory experience! Features 250,000 candles and specialty items, including gourmet food, Vera Bradley products, gifts, collectibles and much more!

OTHER OPTIONS

The first hints of fall with a gentle breeze announcing the promise of full-colored leaves soon to come stir the hearts of artists and art lovers alike. It is a quiet time. A time to enjoy the creative artistry of local and visiting artisans. Replete with art museums, galleries and artists' studios, Williamsburg is a visual delight – and a collector's dream. Whether your preference is traditional or contemporary, cutting-edge or classic, all are here in America's Historic Triangle. There is also a thriving performing arts community found here, complete with theater, symphony and individual performances. Discover the arts in Williamsburg!

CHRISTMAS IN WILLIAMSBURG

Nationally recognized as one of America's favorite Christmas destinations, there is always something in Williamsburg to delight every member of your family. Throughout the Historic Area of Colonial Williamsburg, homes and taverns are decorated in holiday finery. Boughs, wreaths and other decorations are creatively made from all-natural materials. After enjoying the sights and sounds of Christmas, attend a workshop to learn how to make your own wreaths and ornaments. Stroll under a canopy of more than seven million lights at Christmas Town, Busch Gardens' celebration of the season. Enjoy the shows, foods, sights and sounds of Christmas throughout the park. Visit Santa's Workshop where you can meet St. Nick himself. Feast on culinary treats and marvel at the spectacle of Christmas Town's signature shows. Continue the celebration throughout the Historic Triangle where the season comes alive at Jamestown Settlement and the Historic Yorktown Village. And leave time for that Christmas shopping you have yet to complete. From original art and jewelry to those last-minute stocking stuffers, the many shops and outlets of Williamsburg are sure to make Christmas memories for everyone.
